

Questions from a Social Determinants of Health Perspective

- Will a focus on lay delivery of public health lose sight of the structural drivers? What should the balance be?
- If we assume there could be room for both approaches, how do we combine them most effectively?
- Marmot Review of Health Inequalities in England policy objectives:
 1. giving every child the best start in life
 2. enabling all children, young people and adults to maximize their capabilities and have control over their lives
 3. creating fair employment and good work for all
 4. ensuring a healthy standard of living for all
 5. creating and developing sustainable places and communities
 6. strengthening the role and impact of ill-health prevention.
